

A Green Valley Salute to Veterans

Local veterans, friends and family gathered Tuesday at Green Valley Mortuary and Cemetery to observe Veterans Day, honoring those who served in the armed forces and those on active duty, paying extra homage to veterans who died in the line of duty.

Peggy McGee, president of The Women of Quail Creek, places a beautiful wreath upon a Veteran's grave. The Women of Quail Creek was the only Quail Creek club represented at the ceremony.

